In a world full of frustration and exhaustion, how do we encourage enthusiasm and bring energy to our leadership roles and members? Where do we find creativity that inspires and motivates the unmotivated? How do we gain participation and build loyalty? 2022 comes with a different set of challenges and our mission is to build momentum and synergy that sustains despite them. With momentum comes excellence. This session highlights the things we need to focus on in the year ahead - a brand new start and an all new experience in leadership!
