The report from the Committee’s February meeting was reviewed. A motion to approve the report passed unanimously.

The Committee reviewed CIPS and RSPS courses held, cancelled, and currently scheduled for the remainder of 2022. CIPS and RSPS designees from 2021 and 2022 were recognized.

A report on LIBOR’s trade mission to Spain and an update on Columbia was presented to the Committee by Ayres D’Cunha, LIBOR’s Global Chair.

Additionally, Anthony Domathoti, HGAR President, reported on Hudson Gateway’s trade mission to Portugal.

NAR Chair of the CIPS Advisory Board and Global Ambassador for Vietnam and Cambodia, Yoshi Takita, provided an update on those areas for the Committee.

The Committee also receive a presentation from Roseanne Farrow, Emeritus, CIPS, on how to think globally and act locally.

New business included an update on the itinerary for the October trade mission to Italy. No other new business was discussed.

Meeting adjourned.
